

Cost Comparison Guide

Comparison Costs for Long-Term Care Services

If you are planning ahead for your long-term health and wellness needs, you may start wondering, “How do the options in my area compare?” Kendal at Home offers solutions for maintaining your health and wellness in your own home to suit your needs.

This sheet will help you compare the costs of care.

REALITY 1 NURSING HOME

- Average Cost Per Year: $91,250* for a private room

REALITY 2 ASSISTED LIVING

- Average Cost Per Year: $50,005*

REALITY 3 HOME HEALTH CARE, PAY-AS-YOU-GO

- 44 hours of care per week = more than $50,336*/year
- 24/7 care will cost over $192,720*/year

*The above costs are based on national averages. None of these options are tax deductible.

REALITY 4 KENDAL AT HOME

AVERAGE MEMBER WHEN JOINING KENDAL AT HOME:

75 years of age + Platinum Plan (our most comprehensive plan—which includes your care for the rest of your life)

- One-time membership fee: $53,725
- Monthly fee: $750/month ($9,000/year)

Entry fee is lower if you are younger, higher if you are older. Fees are tax deductible as a pre-paid medical expense.

“Kendal’s upfront fee can be less than one year in a skilled care facility and usually is much less than one year of care in an individual’s home.”

Catherine O’Malley Kearney

Senior Vice President/Director of Wealth Management, Key Bank
