Greetings in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, PHC Distance Learning Students!

I'm Dr. Matthew Roberts, the academic advisor for Distance Learning students and manager of the Distance Learning (DL) program here at Patrick Henry College. I'm delighted that you've decided to join us, and hope that you find your classes both informative and enjoyable! Classes begin next Wednesday, January 13th!

As your academic advisor, I'm here to help you manage your DL experience with PHC. In general, your professors will take care of questions and concerns related to your particular courses. I'm here to offer advice on registration, questions about policies, and similar matters.

This past Wednesday afternoon, we held a DL orientation webinar. In case you missed, you may view it here: <https://patrickhenrycollege.wistia.com/medias/y7vi98y2qq>. We covered what follows below as well as answering some student questions.

Just one note for those students who have been admitted as non-degree seeking students. If you are interested in applying for degree-seeking status in the future, please contact the admissions office at admissions@phc.edu.

You should have received from the Registrar your PHC email address and log-in information to access the student portal, which you can find at (campus.phc.edu/studentportal/login.asp). If you have just been enrolled in the College, you will be hearing from the Registrar (Registrar@phc.edu) shortly.

All official college communications, including from your professors, should come to your PHC email address, so please check it regularly. Your professors will be (if they've haven't already) sending you an introductory email letting you know how to get started on their courses. As you know, each DL course meets for a live session with the professor. The times are posted on the PHC DL webpage (<https://www.phc.edu/distance-learning>). They are as follows:

Spring 2021

BIB213 Theology of the Bible II (Darrel Cox, Ph.D.)

Live sessions for Theology of the Bible II will be Tuesdays 10:30 - 11:30 a.m. ET

We've entered your names into our online course platform, Canvas. In the aforementioned email, you were also given instructions on how to login to Canvas so that you can find your course(s). Should you have any problems with Canvas, please contact the PHC Help Desk at helpdesk@phc.edu. When you login to the student portal, you should see a link on the left-hand menu that links to Canvas. Or you can access it directly: phc.instructure.com.

You should have also received information about purchasing textbooks from the PHC bookstore. This information is also available on the student portal. If you have questions about ordering textbooks, please email the Bookstore at bookstore@phc.edu or call (540) 441-8860. Mrs. Kim Estep, the Director of the Bookstore, will be happy to help you with ordering your textbooks.

Also, as a helpful list of contacts for various questions, please see our DL contacts page: <https://www.phc.edu/distance-learning-contacts>.

We also have upper-classmen student tutors in the Study Support Center that can assist you with your questions. They can be reached at ssc@phc.edu.

For career services, see <https://www.phc.edu/career-services>.

Also, in the student portal (campus.phc.edu), there is a link to PHC's internship/job search database.

Thank you for joining us, and I hope you have a good Spring '21 term! Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions or concerns.

Flourish in the riches of Christ,
Dr. Roberts
