Strategic Conference

Energy Ministers to Set the Agenda for the Role of Natural Gas in the Energy Transition

Gastech's globally renowned conference will reunite the industry live and in-person as the energy system transitions to a lower carbon future.

Setting the tone for the direction of the gas, LNG, hydrogen, and energy industry in a post-COVID climate, the global platform will convene business leaders, policy makers, disruptors and innovators in a mission to provide lower carbon and affordable energy for all.

The Gastech Strategic Conference features 21 plenary sessions presented by invited contributors in three discussion formats - Ministerial & Global Business Leader Panels, Gastech LIVE, and C-Suite Dialogues. The Programme also comprises a selection of papers received, known collectively as Strategic Insights. These sessions are practical, informative, and supported by evidence.

Technical Conference

Showcasing the Latest Thinking on Natural Gas, LNG, Hydrogen, and the Energy Transition

The Gastech Technical Conference showcases world-leading research and the latest technological breakthroughs to bridge the gap between new knowledge and its commercial application for the gas, LNG, hydrogen, and energy industry.

80+ speakers will present exclusive and original peer-reviewed papers in five sector-specific streams - AI & Technology, EPC & Project Build, Hydrogen, Marine, and Processing. Sessions will be run concurrently across three conference theatres.

Diversity & Inclusion In Energy

Bringing Diversity & Inclusion to the Forefront During Times of Crisis

The free-to-attend Gastech Diversity & Inclusion programme aims to support diversification in energy-related education, the energy labour market, and decision-making to help tackle issues related to future capacity needs.

To promote equal opportunities in the energy sector, the programme will explore initiatives and best practices in overcoming barriers, the recruitment and retention of staff from varied backgrounds, and the role mentoring and networking play in creating a stimulating peer-learning environment and supportive community.
