Glen E. Weyenberg, CPA President and Principal

Glen is the President of SVA Certified Public Accountants. Glen has experience consulting in business continuity and estate planning in addition to the tax and business areas.

Glen has specialized in the real estate area and has been involved with every phase of structuring real estate transactions. He is a CPA and has extensive experience related to the financial reporting requirements of investors, governmental agencies and lending institutions. Glen consults on tax credits common to real estate such as low-income housing tax credits, historic rehabilitation tax credits, new markets tax credits and energy credits. He also specializes in senior housing campus developments.

Glen specializes in up-front structuring of real estate developments. These services include maximizing the impact of tax credits, various financing options, negotiating with investors and lenders, and formulating operating and exit strategies.

In working with clients, he stresses the importance of identifying procedures and techniques needed to help them manage and control their business more efficiently and economically.

Glen received his Bachelor of Business Administration degree in accounting from UW-Oshkosh in 1986. He is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), the Wisconsin Institute of Certified Public Accountants (WICPA), and various real estate organizations.
