

Ground Control

■ By Cecile B. Corral

Today's shoppers understand that area rugs ground a space. And this season's new styles lay foundations that don't dominate but rather establish quiet elegance. From there on up, new bedding and accessories layer new textures and colors that speak to the latest trends in fashion and function.

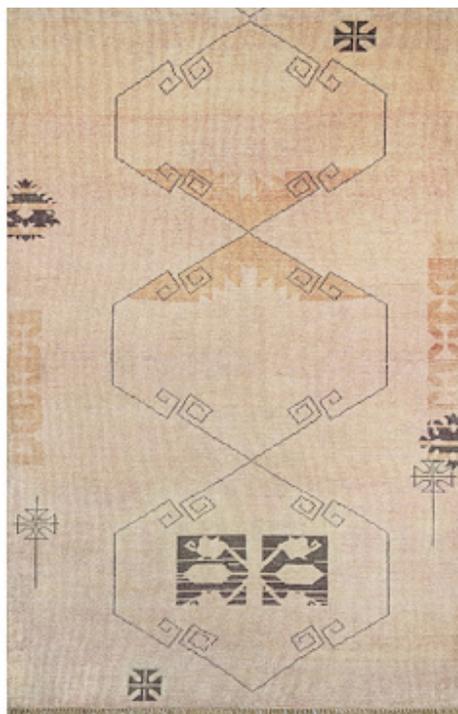

Here is a sampling from the Atlanta International Gift & Home Furnishings Market, Dallas Total Home and Gift Show and the Las Vegas Market winter trade fairs taking place in January.

HiEnd Accents' Desert Sage Quilt presents a soft modern take on Southwestern style. Its coordinating dec pillows are made of 100% leather. Dallas: 6650 / Las Vegas: B-102

Loloi is expanding its licensed program with Rifle Paper Co. by adding several new styles and constructions, including the line's first indoor/outdoor selection. Seen here is the jacquard-inspired Armetie. Dallas: 500 / Atlanta: B1, 4-D-2 / Las Vegas: B-462

Momeni's Kouang collection of heirloom quality hand-knotted rugs is made to feel like a find discovered "at your favorite Parisian flea market." Dallas: 9015 / Atlanta: B1, 4-B-2 / Las Vegas: C-482

Ann Gish Inc.'s Art of Home line continues to expand with new styles, including the all-cotton Bubble matelasse coverlet set. Dallas: 9028 / Atlanta: B1, 9-E-18
