

Ergonomic design fits natural spine alignment

Sit Longer in Comfort

Full-Length Back Support Cushion

It's the only seat cushion to offer full back support for longer sitting comfort, proper alignment, and lumbar support. It relieves stiffness, low back pain, and takes pressure off of the spinal column.

- Ergonomic design provides proper alignment, correct posture, and superior comfort
- The unique spinal groove provides comfort all the way from shoulders, down the spine, and to the tailbone
- Curved edges hug the users sides to provide form-fitting comfort and added stability
- Tapered edges gives a full range of movement
- Ventilated foam and breathable fabric (3D Mesh) provide cool, all-day comfort
- Tapered bottom and coccyx cutout relieve tailbone pressure
- Lightweight and portable - perfect for travel
- Adjustable straps and non-slip backing keep cushion in place
