

Children's Online Policy

The online financial services offered through Copper State Credit Union's website are not designed for or directed toward children under age 13. At this time, Copper State Credit Union does not knowingly solicit or collect data from children, and we do not knowingly market to children in an online environment without express parental consent or notification.

Since we do not collect any personally identifiable information from children under the age of 13, we also do not knowingly distribute such information to third parties. If we receive information online from any child, we will only use the information to respond directly to a child's one time request.

If you believe your child has provided personally identifiable information to us, please contact us so we can allow you the opportunity to review and delete such information.
