Taylor Logistics Inc. Announces New Warehouse In Cincinnati

CINCINNATI, Sept. 10, 2020 -- Taylor Logistics Inc. (TLI), a Cincinnati based third-party logistics company, today announced plans to open a new fulfillment center just outside Cincinnati later this month. The new location, at 10095 International Blvd in West Chester, Ohio, will be the company's second public multi-client warehouse in Ohio. Their first location is positioned just down the street at 9756 International Blvd.

"Our customized solutions, time-sensitive scalability, and our technology have proven we are not merely a vendor for our customers but a partner," said President and sixth-generation Owner, Rex Taylor. "This second building on International will be home to our eCommerce hub, Cincinnati's ever-changing industry landscape and proximity to the consumer makes 10095 the perfect spot for our customers."

The new 80,000 square foot warehouse located on International is conveniently positioned next to two major interstates, rail ports, and cargo hubs. The new facility will house Taylor's full suite of value-added services, including pick & pack, kitting, eCommerce fulfillment, packaging, product staging, and special projects.
