

NSLS Student President

The National Society of Leadership and Success- Jersey City, NJ

Imagine a community of students taking action toward their dreams and living happier lives. In this world, people are so fulfilled they reach out and positively contribute to the lives of others. That's who we impact, and that's what we are building. Want to be a part of it?

To determine whether you'd be a good fit, ask yourself...

- Would you like to work knowing that you are using your talents to help others and better the world?
- Are you inspired by the thought of positively impacting other students?
- Are you ready to work in an organization that is rapidly growing and embraces change?
- Would you like to work with people whom you respect and can learn from every day?
- Do you desire to work for an organization that cares about your growth, where your own drive and interests help you create your own future?

Our guiding question is: "Are we helping the greatest number of people in the greatest possible way?" Are you inspired? Let's change the world together.

Overview:

The National Society of Leadership and Success is the largest collegiate leadership honor society in the United States, with over 700 chapters and more than one million members, who collectively have completed over 282,000 hours of community service.
