

Keller Warehousing & Co-Packing

KENTUCKY CO-PACKING SERVICES

Next to the Cincinnati Airport and 10 minutes from Cincinnati, quick access to interstates 71 & 75 keeps products flowing whether north or southbound.

Our co-packing services in Kentucky are strategically located in Covington and Erlanger, Kentucky to provide clients with seamless distribution to the Greater Cincinnati and Northeastern Kentucky areas, and beyond. Licensed as food-grade warehouses, our facilities exceed the standards in sanitation and efficient organization to ensure the best in product safety, storage, and distribution.

We hold our own ABC licenses as a convenience to our alcoholic beverage producing customers and to demonstrate our commitment in servicing this segment of the beverage market.

Warehousing & Co-Packing Solutions

Capabilities

No matter what your packaging needs encompass, Keller Warehousing & Co-Packing has your contract packaging solution. From product re-packing and palletizing to hand-packed promotional kits to high-volume, fully-automated packaging with inkjet printing, Keller has you covered. By utilizing our highly cost-efficient state-of-the-art multi-pack system, the beverage and brewing industries effectively ship their products to market quicker, time and time again.

Our machinery allows us to repack cans or bottles with or without trays and assemble the product into 4, 6, 8, 12, 18, or 24 single flavor cartons, or high demand variety, rainbow, sampler, and club store packs. Assembling EADs (end aisle displays) and shipper displays are one of our specialties as well.

Manhattan SCALE™ WMS migration across our entire network will be complete by the end of 2020!
