

The following phrases can be used to access community-specific information. Just be sure to always begin with the phrase: “Alexa, ask Connected Living...”

For event information, say:

“Alexa, ask Connected Living what’s on the calendar?”

“Alexa, ask Connected Living what’s on the calendar tomorrow?”

“Alexa, ask Connected Living what are the events Wednesday afternoon?”

For event location, say:

“Alexa, ask Connected Living where is the Town Meeting?”

For event time, say:

“Alexa, ask Connected Living what time is the Town Meeting?”

“Alexa, ask Connected Living what time is the Town Meeting on October 21st?”

For meal information, say:

“Alexa, ask Connected Living what’s on the menu in the ...”

“Alexa, ask Connected Living what’s for dinner at ...”

“Alexa, ask Connected Living what’s for lunch tomorrow at...”

“...Crawford Dining Room?”

“...Russell Avenue Cafe?”

“...Hefner Dining Room?”

“...Park View Dining Room?”

“...Blue Note Bistro?”

For community alerts, say:

“Alexa, ask Connected Living are there any alerts?”

For community announcements, say:

“Alexa, ask Connected Living are there any community announcements?”

For video announcements, say:

“Alexa, ask Connected Living are there any video announcements?” (ECHO Show only)

Announcements support standard commands such as: stop, resume, next, previous, start over*

For Help, say:

“Alexa, ask Connected Living for help.”

“Alexa, ask Connected Living to contact Connected Living.”

“Alexa, ask Connected Living how do I contact Connected Living?”