

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Wednesday, February 10, 2021

GREETING

In reverse alphabetical order, please greet your entire advisory with both a hand gesture and facial expression.

- Be simple
- Be welcoming
- Be happy

SHARE

Before we begin to reflect on Black History Month, let's consider how we all can relate to honoring ourselves and others.

When you and your life experiences are celebrated, how does that make you feel?

Please use the various links found in these slides to explore the culture, history, activism, and the human stories in Black History.

View the material together as an advisory, making navigation choices together.

Watch both videos provided.
We will reflect together at the conclusion of advisory.

National Museum of African American History and Culture

Please watch together the virtual tour found in the video (full-screen for better viewing) and explore the virtual opportunities found in the museum's website, virtual exhibitions, and collections

(click the image below for museum site and the video for a virtual tour))

USING YOUR VOICE IS A POLITICAL CHOICE

AMANDA GORMAN

Please read the quote aloud watch Amanda Gorman's Ted Talk.

28 WAYS TO CELEBRATE BLACK HISTORY MONTH - NAACP

- Support a Black business
- Visit a Black History or Civil Rights Museum in your local area
- Donate to a Black organization
- Host a Black film marathon
- Wear your hair out in its natural form to school, work or a social event
- Become a member of a Black organization
- Trace your family history
- Spend time with a Black elder in your community
- Read a book by a Black author
- Cook a soul food meal
- Sign up to mentor a Black child in your community
- Donate to an HBCU
- Attend or host a Black culture event in your community
- Learn about an unsung hero of Black history
- Support a Black creative (artist, poet, local musician, etc.)
- Study the African Diaspora
- Explore Black Music
- Call out racism and prejudice in your community
- Sign up to receive news from a Black organization
- Contribute an essay or blog to a Black media outlet
- Support the black media, black press and the NNPA
- Engage in healthy conversations about Black history on social media
- Learn the lyrics to Lift Ev'ry Voice and Sing
- Read Dr. King's I Have a Dream Speech
- Decorate your home with Black Art
- Read a biography of an influential Black figure
- Write a Black children's Book
- Register to vote!

REFLECTION

Each advisee shares:

What links and resources did you stand out to you?

Did you discover something new?

In what ways would you like to use your voice?

What opportunities can we discover while celebrating Black History Month as individuals and as a community?

