

OneScreen Welcomes Nicole Geoghan As New Channel Marketing Manager for Expanding Reseller Network

San Diego, September 2021

To better serve its rapidly growing Reseller community, OneScreen announced the appointment of Nicole Geoghan to the role of Channel Marketing Manager, beginning immediately. Geoghan brings to the table a great deal of experience in technology, marketing and operations.

Fall marks the start of a new era at OneScreen as their Resellers around the globe drive a rapid expansion of the channel. The arrival of Nicole Geoghan as OneScreen's new Channel Marketing Manager highlights how highly OneScreen prioritizes Reseller success in the changing global buyer ecosystem.

Although Geoghan is at the start of her career, still finishing her MBA from SUNY Brockport, she has already accomplished a great deal in the fields of marketing and operations, working with tech firms at CDO Summit.

From her base in Long Island, NY, Geoghan will oversee Reseller success, communications and channel expansion management.

” I am excited to start my journey working with the diverse community of global resellers and the OneScreen marketing & sales teams. I can already tell working at OneScreen will improve my marketing strategies and create remarkable relationships between my team, current resellers and future resellers!

Executive VP of Marketing Kelly Bolton added, “Supporting our Resellers’ growth is a top priority. Nicole brings intelligence, energy, creativity and precision execution to our team. We are very fortunate to have her focused on building success in our partner channel.”

More information on how OneScreen recognizes Resellers is on their new How to Buy page. Additional supports such as private demo scheduling, spec sheets and instructional videos are available at the OneScreen website and their YouTube channel.

About OneScreen

OneScreen is a complete smart school technology provider with expertise in video collaboration and AI. We've discovered through experience that only the finest quality unified communications can bring people together with both the simplicity and the detail they need.

For nearly a decade, OneScreen has been a leading force in presenting the world with advances in audio-video, presentation and communications technologies. From the classroom to the conference room, OneScreen is there with customized tools that teams need for smarter, more secure, more productive collaboration - smart screens, software, AI cameras, entryway managers and more. Headquartered in San Diego, California, OneScreen has offices in the United States, Pakistan, Colombia, Mexico, U.A.E. and Canada. All of your collaboration tools are right here. Learn more at OneScreenSolutions.com or our Facebook and Twitter pages.