

Learn Together

VOLUME 2, ISSUE 7

As we get closer to the start of the new school year, Yellowdig is making sure that everyone is equipped with the correct resources and knowledge for a smooth transition.

Our new product update features a walkthrough tutorial of the platform. The "Getting Started" feature allows instructors and community facilitators to easily set up a new community in one go.

Additionally, we got the chance to sit down with David Blakesley from Clemson University to hear about how he used Yellowdig in his English classroom to drive student engagement. Click the link down below to watch a recording of the webinar. It's definitely something you don't want to miss!

Discussion Boards: Effective? Clichéd? Let's Discuss.

How effective is a discussion board for fostering community, anyway? Is it beneficial in the traditional setting where all we see is the same old “one post, two comments” method? If you find yourself asking these questions and curious to learn how this next generation of learning and technology could impact education, then it's time to think about the new potentials that discussion boards hold. Click on the link below to learn more.
