The Brookmont Dividend Growth Strategy returns are based on an asset-weighted composite of discretionary accounts that include 100% of the recommended holdings. Individual accounts will have varying returns, including those invested in the Strategy. The reasons for this include, 1) the period of time in which the accounts are active, 2) the timing of contributions and withdrawals, 3) the account size, and 4) holding other securities that are not included in the Strategy. Dividends and capital gains are not reinvested. The Strategy does not utilize leverage or derivatives. Returns are based in U.S. dollars. The inception of the Strategy is January 1, 2015.

The Brookmont Dividend Growth Strategy Composite contains fully discretionary accounts with similar value equity investment strategies and objectives. For comparison purposes, the Dividend Growth Strategy Composite is measured against the Russell 1000 Index. The Russell 1000 Index measures the performance of the large-cap segment of the U.S. equity universe. It includes those Russell 1000 companies with lower price-to-book ratios and lower expected growth values. The Russell 1000 Index is constructed to provide a comprehensive and unbiased barometer for the large-cap value segment.

The firm maintains a complete list and description of composites, which is available upon request. Results are based on fully discretionary accounts under management, included those accounts no longer with the firm. Composite policy requires the temporary removal of any portfolio incurring a client initiated significant cash inflow or outflow of at least 15% of portfolio assets. The temporary removal of such account occurs at the beginning of the month in which the significant cash flow occurs and the account re-enters the composite at the beginning of the month which follows the cash flow by at least 30 days. Additional information regarding the treatment of significant cash flows is available upon request.

Brookmont's returns do not include reinvestment of dividends and are shown gross-of-fees. All transaction costs are included. The Russell 1000 cumulative return includes reinvestment of dividends and capital gains. During a rising market, not reinvesting dividend could have a negative effect on cumulative returns. There is no representation that this index is an appropriate benchmark for such comparison. You cannot invest directly in an index, which also does not take into account trading commissions and costs. The Volatility of this index may be materially different from the performance of the Strategy. Gross returns will be reduced by investment advisory fees and other expenses that may be incurred in the management of the account. Net-of-fees performance was calculated using actual management fees. Additional information regarding the policies for calculating and reporting returns is available upon request.

Your account returns might vary from the composite's returns if you own securities that are not included in the Strategy or if your portfolio dollar-cost averaged into the Strategy during the reporting period.
