

Hire Qualified, DOT Compliant CDL Drivers and Diesel Mechanics Direct to Your Business

Timing Is Everything

Finding qualified drivers and mechanics is increasingly challenging. On average, an organization spends between 30 and 45 days to find and hire these in-demand profiles. TransForce Group helps you find access to the right talent and fill open positions in a matter of a few days with our Direct Hire Services.

Fill Your Trucks with Safe Drivers Quickly

Shorten lead time on new hires to a matter of days leveraging TransForce Group's extensive driver and mechanic network.

Save Resources on Recruitment

Stand on the shoulders of giants by utilizing our proven recruitment processes and compliance validation to hire qualified professionals faster.

Reduce Financial Risk of Hiring and Onboarding

Benefit from zero upfront recruitment costs. Our customers are given a trial period to validate new staff meet their standards.

Keep your trucks moving and bays filled.

How It Works

Customized to your size, location and available positions - TransForce Group's Direct Hire Services are a low risk, cost efficient solution for your CDL driver and diesel mechanic direct hire needs. We screen our transportation professionals prior to dispatch, ensuring you've got the right person for any job.

Screening	Dispatch	Approval
We perform 1:1 interviews, criminal background checks, employment verification, drug and alcohol testing and more.	Professionals who pass our screening process and meet your qualifications are introduced to your business.	You have the chance to validate your new staff meets your company standards during our 45 day trial period.
