CALGARY – Arts Commons Presents is excited to announce a full line-up of five virtual National Geographic Live presentations starting with Anand Varma and Prasenjeet Vadav: Scientific Exposure on Monday, February 8, 2021 at 7pm.

Entering the 10th season of presenting National Geographic Live in Calgary, Arts Commons is now offering this exclusive opportunity for Calgarians to experience this inspiring and energizing speaker series from the safety and comfort of their own homes. The virtual series will explore topics as diverse as microphotography and the mysteries of the deep ocean, to dinosaur discovery, and the prospect of life on other worlds.

"As we aren't able to gather safely and share these amazing events in-person at the Jack Singer Concert Hall, we are delighted to present National Geographic Live virtually," says Jennifer Johnson, Director of Programming at Arts Commons. "For Calgarians who haven't had a chance to experience a National Geographic Live presentation, this is a wonderful opportunity to sample the powerful messages of these amazing speakers, all free of charge thanks to our dedicated sponsors."
