Global Health Appoints new Chief Financial Officer

Global Health Ltd (ASX: GLH) is pleased to announce the appointment of Mr Ershad Ali as its Chief Financial Officer, commencing in August.

Mr Ali joins the Company as an accomplished finance professional and senior executive offering 10 years of progressive experience across the ASX listed healthcare sector as well as in logistics, retail, property and NFP industries. Mr Ali has a proven track record in building positive relationships with a wide range of stakeholders, along with demonstrated experience in operational management, financial control, and business growth.

Mr Ali joins the Company from Ramsay Healthcare Limited (ASX: RHC), as Director of Finance and Support Services. Ramsay Healthcare is an ASX Top 50 Company with revenues in excess of $14 billion and 80,000 staff globally. He will join the current Global Health Executive Management team where he will provide additional complementary skills to support the direction and contribute strongly to the development of the growth strategy of the Company.

Mr Ali will lead the financial management of Global Health focused on the effective and dynamic use of the capital recently raised to develop short to medium term revenue growth and long term Research and Development.

Global Health CEO Michael Davies said:

"I am delighted that Ershad is joining Global Health as CFO as we continue to progress our operations and growth focus. Ershad will make an invaluable addition to the Global Health team at this important time for the Company to support our short, medium and long term growth and strategic objectives. I look forward to the contributions he will bring to the table."

Global Health would like to thank the outgoing Acting CFO, Jane Tisdall for her prior work in assisting Global Health and her ongoing support of Mr Ali as he fully transitions into his new role.
