“Having a home has impacted my education because I don’t have to ever worry about having to move again. I can relax knowing I have space to grow and do all of my schoolwork and random projects. I can use the space to explore my curiosity. I can even yell as loud as I want! I have a place to call home and I feel like I am more a part of a supportive community which in turn helps me embrace my education.”

“We have included Twin Cities Habitat in our estate plan because ‘you can’t take it with you’ and this life is our only opportunity to make an impact. It just seems obvious to us that a smart plan puts any remaining dollars to good use supporting a cause that has been a passion during our lives.”
